Grading Rubric Report 1
	Formal content
						Scores
Title page	Does the title page contain all necessary elements?	Yes 1	No 0
	Does the report have an informative title (and subtitle)?	Yes 1	No 0
	Does the title page contain a relevant image?	Yes 1	No 0
Table of contents	Does the table of contents contain all necessary elements, and only those?	Yes 1	No 0
	Are the chapters, sections and subsections numbered correctly?	Yes 1	No 0
	Are there no lone subsections?	Yes 1	No 0
	Are the titles of chapters, sections and subsections informative?	Yes 1	No 0
List of variables	Are all relevant symbols and variables listed in the list of variables?	Yes 1	No 0
	Are the descriptions of the symbols and variables in the list of variables clear and correct?	Yes 1	No 0
	Are the units of variables or constants listed (correctly)?	Yes 1	No 0
Bibliography and references	Has the bibliography been formatted correctly and consistently?	Yes 1	No 0
	Does the bibliography contain all relevant information about the listed references?	Yes 1	No 0
	Are the items in the bibliography all mentioned in the report?	Yes 1	No 0
	Are the in-text references formatted correctly and consistently?	Yes 1	No 0
	Do all figures that need a reference have a proper reference?	Yes 1	No 0
	Is credit given when credit is due? Are all instances where work of others is used accompanied by a reference?	Yes 1	No 0
Appendices	Do all appendices support the report, by adding something useful, relevant or interesting?	Yes 1	No 0
	Are all appendices numbered correctly, and referenced in the main text body?	Yes 1	No 0
	Do all appendices have informative titles?	Yes 1	No 0
	Did the authors correctly move very long derivations and computer codes to	Yes	No

	appendices?	1	0
	Formal content grade:	Poor 0–8	Fair 9–12	Good 13–16	Excellent 17–20
	Summary, Introduction and Conclusion
						Scores
Summary	Has the main problem been clearly outlined in the summary?	Yes 1	No 0
	Has the method to analyse the problem been outlined in the summary?	Yes 1	No 0
	Is the main conclusion of the report stated in the summary?	Yes 1	No 0
	Is the summary fully understandable as a stand-alone document?	Yes 2	Mostly 1	No 0
	Is the summary concise, and free from superfluous information?	Yes 1	No 0
Introduction	Is the main problem clearly stated and outlined in the introduction?	Yes 1	No 0
	Does the introduction give a wider context for this problem?	Yes 1	No 0
	Does the introduction outline the structure of the report clearly and correctly?	Yes 2	Mostly 1	No 0
	Does the introduction help the reader comprehend the rest of the report?	Yes 1	No 0
Conclusion	Is the problem clearly restated in the conclusion chapter?	Yes 1	No 0
	Does the conclusion answer the main question of the report?	Yes 2	Mostly 1	No 0
	Does the conclusion follow logically from the work done in previous chapters?	Yes 2	Mostly 1	No 0
	The conclusion should not contain new information, but only draw conclusions from earlier work. Is that true for this report?	Yes 1	No 0
	Summary, Introduction and Conclusion grade:	Poor 0–7	Fair 8–11	Good 12–14	Excellent 15–17
	Structure and Argumentation
						Scores
	Do all chapters have a clear topic?	Yes 2	Nearly 1	No 0

Grading Rubric Report 1

Structure	Does each chapter have a useful chapter introduction?	Yes 1	No 0
	Does each chapter have a chapter conclusion summarising its results?	Yes 1	No 0
	Are the chapters divided into sections and subsections in a way that aids understanding of the report?	Yes 2	Mostly 1	No 0
	Does each paragraph have a clear, single message?	Yes 2	Most paragraphs do 1	Many paragraphs do not 0
	Are paragraphs grouped to underline the structure of the text?	Yes 1	No 0
Argumentation	Is the main conclusion fully supported by the report?	Yes 2	Mostly 1	No 0
	Are all chapter conclusions fully supported by their chapters?	Yes 2	Nearly all 1	No 0
	Are all models, programs and calculations fully described in the report?	Yes 2	Most descriptions are clear, but some are incomplete. 1	Multiple descriptions are wrong or really incomplete. 0
	Are all "Why?" questions answered in this report, by either argumentation or a reference?	Yes 2	Nearly all 1	No 0
Structure and Argumentation grade		Poor 0--7	Fair 8--11	Good 12--14	Excellent 15--17
Figures, Language and Formulas
Figures	Are most figures relevant?	Yes 1	No 0			Scores
	Do all figures have an informative caption?	Yes, (almost) always 1	No, not always 0
	Are all figures numbered and captioned consistently?	Yes, (almost) always 1	No, not always 0
	Are all figures described in the main body of the text?	Yes, (almost) always 1	No, not always 0
	Are all figures comprehensible and legible (if applicable)?	Yes, (almost) always 1	No, not always 0
	Do all graphs have labeled axes, and units? And do all figures include legends when applicable?	Yes, (almost) always 1	No, not always 0
	Are figures used often enough to help the reader understand the report?	Yes 1	No 0
	How does the language used in this report influence its readability?	The report is fully comprehensible, though some spelling or grammar errors may occur. 2	The report is generally comprehensible, but some sentences may be unclear due to language issues. 1	Many sentences and paragraphs are less comprehensible due to language issues. 0

Grading Rubric Report 1

Language	Is the language used in this report generally formal?	Yes 1	No 0
	Is the language used in this report generally objective?	Yes 1	No 0
	Does this report seem to have been carefully read by its authors, to avoid typos and sloppiness?	Yes 1	No 0
Mathematical formatting	Are all referenced formulas separately displayed and numbered?	Yes 1	No 0
	Are all formulas of the main results and models clearly displayed?	Yes 1	No 0
	Has the display option been used appropriately for other formulas (no obvious overuse or underuse)?	Yes 1	No 0
	Are (nearly) all formulas part of proper sentences?	Yes 1	No 0
	Are the calculations and formulas accompanied by explanations?	Yes 1	No 0
	Are formulas written consistently (style, names of variables, etc)?	Yes 1	No 0
Figures, Language and Formulas grade:		Poor 0–7	Fair 8–11	Good 12–15	Excellent 16–18

Problem					Scores
	Is the main problem interesting and relevant, for the real world or science?	Very 2	Quite 1	No 0
	Is the main problem well-specified?	Yes 2	Mostly 1	No 0
Model	Are the quantities and parameters of the differential equation(s) in the basic model well-described, including their units?	Yes 2	Mostly 1	No 0
	Have the authors given a description of the terms in the differential equation(s) and their functions in the model?	Yes 2	Mostly 1	No 0
Calculations	How do you grade the quality of the analytical work (calculations on paper)?	Good 2	Fair 1	Poor 0
	How do you grade the quantity of the analytical work (calculations on paper)?	Good 2	Fair 1	Poor 0
	How do you grade the quality of the numerical work? (simulations using Euler's method)	Good 2	Fair 1	Poor 0
	How do you grade the quantity of the numerical work? (simulations using Euler's method)	Good 2	Fair 1	Poor 0
Have the authors critically evaluated the results of their model?		Yes	Mostly	Not really

Grading Rubric Report 1

Validation	Have the authors critically evaluated the results of their model?	2	1	0
	Did the authors give credible suggestions for further improvement of the model?	Yes	Somewhat	Not really
